one member of the club who is loyal to the cresent management said: "I think that these men who have rushed to the newspapers to vent their pite and to discuss club affairs have made a e and to discuss club aftairs have so much for the club. We have a complaint k for members who are dissatisfied with the mer in which the club is conducted. As for agitation for a new clubhouse at this time, h a plan is rideulous, considering the stringly of the money market. No sound business in is investing much money in new and uncerty centures just now. The "winged-foot" kickshould remember the fate of the Manhattan detic Club. Our club is a rich one, so to speak, its good financial condition is due to consertive business management." mes Whitely, the president of the club, admitted the there was some dissatisfaction in the club. He not think that it would be advisable to push the relubhouse just at this time. He intimated that members who had alleged grievances had not in the new heart sufficient time in which to a should reform. He said that the closing of bar was really an experiment. It was learned no there sources that the men who opposed the earliest execution of the new clubhouse were the who would be the ones to contribute to that pose when the time came for action. MISSTATEMENTS ABOUT INTERIOR DECORATIONS

DETAINED BY CUSTOMS OFFICERS A mass of missiatements have been pushed, which were brought into this country from France by Aliani & Sons, of No. 437 Pifth-ave., which are at the Appraiser's Stores for a revaluation. It has been erroneously stated that the goods were for John Jacob Astor's new house at Fifth-ave, and Sixty-fifth-st., and that if the goods were finally nsible. The fact of the matter is that ten days ago a number of cases consigned to Aliard & Sons ivel on La Touraine, and the valuation appearing too low, the customs authorities thought they would better be appraised before the duty was col-
